Danbury Shopping

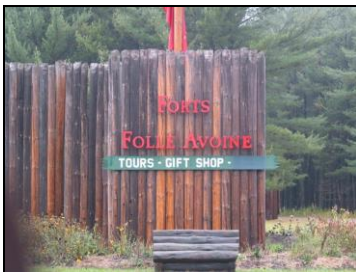

Homestead Embroidery & Gifts is on Main Street. Deb Holter and her staff feature a tasteful selection of gifts, tee-shirts and other embroidered items, plus homemade fudge (ask for a sample!).

Deb's Closet, next to Homestead Embroidery, is a very clean and neat used clothing store.

The Log Cabin Store, located at the corner of Highway 77 & 35, features a complete sports shop plus souvenirs, moccasins and unique "up north" gifts. Sandra is shown here in the moccasin department.

History

Forts Folle Avoine Historical Park is located on 80 wooded acres along the Yellow River near Danbury, Wisconsin. Open from May through September, the park is a living history site where reconstructed fur trade posts occupy the actual sites where they once operated from 1802 to 1805, alongside an authentic Woodland Indian Village.

From Hwy 35, 5 miles south of Danbury, go right (west) on County Road "U" three miles to the Fort. 715-866-8890

Webster

Gandy Dancer Books on Main Street is a "must see" for those who enjoy reading. This is a used book shop with over 30,000 volumes including mysteries, westerns, cook books, children's books plus books on gardening and wildlife.

Webster Antiques on Main Street is open during the warm months and has two floors of antiques with good variety.

Women particularly enjoy Emily's Luncheon, located on Highway 35, with their antiques, crafts and collectables.

Caring Hands Massage is on Highway 35 across from Wayne's Grocery. 715-790-3499.

Siren

A major, F-4 tornado wiped out much of the town eight years ago. The residents and merchants have done a nice job of rebuilding. As a memorial to the tornado, an aluminum fishing boat has been left in place, wrapped around a power pole. It is located along Hwy. 70 going west toward Grantsburg.

Siren (continued)

On Hwy 35 before reaching Siren is Siren Antiques one of Sandra's favorite shops in the area. It is located on the east side of the road at 24534 Highway 35.

The Shops at the Lodge is located on Hwy 35 next to Adventure's Restaurant. There are several nice, upscale shops here including a gourmet coffee shop, kitchen store and gift shop plus a scrap booking store. This center is also home to Nouveau' Day Spa and Salon.

Right behind The Shops is Moose Mulligan's Miniature Golf. Enjoy 18 holes of creative fun! The Timers Movie Theatre is also close by.

Peggy's Fashion Rack is on Siren's Main Street and features clothes plus household items. This also happens to be the place Sandra found the lighted ducklings for the tub in your room.

Siren Restaurants

Tesora

Located at the intersection of Highways 35 and 70, we are hopeful this new restaurant will achieve recognition as the best in the area. 715-349-7878

Little Mexico

Located on Hwy. 35 just south of Siren. Open Friday, Saturday and Sunday only for lunch and dinner. Everything is homemade. Not fancy but the Mexican food is excellent. They use 3 hand-mixed cheeses picked up from Burnett Dairy weekly. Beef is freshly delivered by Deffler's meats.

Adventures Restaurant

Located on Hwy. 35 at the north end of Siren, next to The Shops and the Lodge Motel. Newer Applebee's-style restaurant with rustic décor. Very complete menu
